FROM FRENCH PAPERS

Received at the Office of the Public Ledger.

PARIS, June 15.

Report made to his majesty the emperor and king, by his excellency the minister of the public treasure.

SIRE,

The payment of the American debts upon the fund of 20 millions is in full activity. Among the American creditors who are paying off, there are several who receive by means of their attornies.

I have received information from all parts, that some of these agents complained of having been obliged to make sacrifices for the purpose of being paid. It is, however, much more probable that they thus prepare for themselves means under false pretext, to make these deductions be supported by their employers. To disconcert these manœuvres, I have written the annexed letter to Mr. Armstrong, the minister of the United States. It has since been rumoured, that some creditors had been forced, previous to obtaining their liquidation, to give bills of exchange, in blank, payable at the same time that the treasury should make its payments. Though fully persuaded beforehand that nothing similar had taken place at the general liquidation, I did not judge it less necessary to put a stop to these calumnious reports. For this purpose I determined to see all the creditors tete-a-tete at the moment of payment; I told them, that I was taking measures that no deduction should be allowed them by their employers in America, that if they had passed any such bills, the payment of them should be at their own cost; and that for the remainder I should give them (the attornies) the means of forcing those to restitution who should have extorted such bills in blank from them.

It appears to me that these rumors have less weight since I took this step, and should they entirely cease, I shall have the certitude that these reports were impositions of covetous people, who wished to cheat their employers.

I pray you, sire, to accept the homage of my profound respect for your majesty.

BARBE-MARBOIS.

Paris, 11th Prairial, year 13.

The minister of the public treasure to his excellency the minister plenipotentiary of the United States.

PARIS, 17th Floreal, year 13.

Sir,

You and I have taken cognizance of the liquidations that have been made of each of the American debts, payable at the public treasury, upon a fund specially assigned by one of the conventions of the 10th Floreal, year 11.

We have taken the measures which we judged most proper to secure to each creditor the recovery of what is due to him. Several of them are represented by assignees or by agents with full power of attorney. It appears from what I was told by the person who presented himself in your name, that you are apprehensive of the abuses which some persons might make of the orders that will be delivered to them by you.

I have indeed received information that some attornies or other agents, intend to retain in their own hands more or less considerable portions of the sums which shall be paid to them, and that they will seek to justify this infidelity, by giving out that they have been obliged to make advances of disbursements to obtain a right to this payment. We must be upon our guard against such charges, when those who hazard to make them will name nobody, and confine themselves to vague designations.

All persons interested in these payments have had and will always have the power of recurring to us or to the upright magistrate, director general, who presided at the liquidation of the debts. But independent of this power, you may acquaint all those to whom or for whose account these payments are made, that the whole of the sums paid belongs to them; that their correspondents cheat them if they attempt to make deductions, either exhorbitant, as I have been informed, or even moderate. They are obliged to allow them only the commission usual in trade. All other deduction, secret or even avowed, which these correspondents should make them undergo, would indicate a malversation, for which they will have full redress in the courts of justice or in any other manner. In support of their reclamation, they will obtain from you and from me all necessary information. They may ask for it at any time, may return and ask for fresh information; nothing will be refused them. We shall always look upon it as a duty to enable them to exercise their right to its full extent. I even think it proper, since you and I are to see all parties who are to receive payment, that we should give them the assurances, and that if any may have been led into error, they should know that we shall spare no pains that they may experience no loss in the amount of the sum, which shall have been acknowledged to be due to them.

I pray you,
Sir,
To accept the assurance
of my high consideration.
(Signed)

LONDON, July 26.

At length we have received official intelligence of Lord Nelson. The following notice was this morning sent from the admiralty into the city for the gratification of the gentlemen of the stock exchange:—

Admiralty, July 26.

"His majesty's ship Decade, arrived in the Tagus on the 10th inst. with letters from lord Nelson, dated at sea the 10th June. His Lordship, with the squadron under his command, (including the Spartiate) was on the 18th in lat. 27, N. long. 60, W.

"The enemy's fleet had unfortunately fallen in with and captured several ships of a convoy from Antigua, the day after it sailed which was on the 7th of June of which Lord Nelson was apprized.

"The number captured is supposed to be thirteen or fourteen sail, under convoy of his majesty's ship Netley and Barbados."

July 27.

A neutral cap[tain] arrived yesterday morning from [Ham]burg, that throughout the [whole] is hurry and bustle [in] preparations to join the Bologne [flo]tilla; that the idea in Holland was [given] up, as the invasion will be made [this] month.

A telegraphic dispa[tch] announced the arrival of [the] East India fleet off the [Lizard].

Brixham, July

Sailed the ship William Pitt, of L[ondon] capt. Boyce, for Botany Bay, having board 120 women convicts.

Plymouth, July 24.

Falmouth July 23.

Arrived, the American brig Rover, Waite, from Norfolk, after a passage of 32 days for orders, laden with tobacco.

Appeared off the harbor, and proceeded on for Amsterdam, the American ship William captain Haw, from Boston, with tobacco.

CHARLESTON, Sept. 6.

Mr. J. B. Jarboe, gunner, and Mr. James Love, sail-maker, on board the brig Jane, of Baltimore, which was captured and sent into Barracoa, and who arrived at this port in the brig Lear, have furnished us with the following particulars of that action:

On the morning of the 25th July, off the Platform, were engaged by the French privateer Superb, capt. Dominique, mounting 6 guns, with 87 men, completely accoutred with muskets, &c. The Jane mounted 16 carriage-guns, and at the commencement of the action had 44 men, six or eight of which were too sick to stand the deck; her commander, captain Wm. Kennedy, was killed early in the action, which lasted about one hour, when the privateersmen carried the Jane by boarding, after being twice before beaten off, in attempting it. On boarding, the Frenchmen behaved in the most shameful and cruel manner; Mr. Anderson, the mate, who was wounded in the arm, and who was the only officer remaining on deck when they came on board, was immediately cut down with their sabres, as were also one man and a boy, who had not secured their retreat by running below. Mr. Fanning, supercargo of the schooner which was captured in company, and who had taken passage in the brig for safety, was thrown overboard, and endeavoring to swim to the privateer, was wantonly shot while in the water. The remainder of the crew of the Jane were cruelly treated by the privateersmen, and plundered of every thing.

[illegible]t in giving

of Tripoli:—

[illegible]ther existed en-
[illegible]e exile and attach.
[illegible]he part of his for-
[illegible]be employed to the [illegible]e and advantage of his
[illegible]se; but without meaning
[illegible]lves by any specific or de-
[illegible]t as an end, which the te-
[illegible]tructions, and the limited
sum appropriated, for that special purpose, clearly demonstrate. I fear by the convention you seem to think of making with Hamet, that a wider range would be taken than is consistent with the powers vested in me for that particular object. These apprehensions may perhaps prove groundless on further representations from you, but under the present impressions I feel it my duty to to state explicitly, that I must withhold my sanction to any convention, or agreement, committing the United States or tending to impress upon Hamet Bashaw a conviction that we have bound ourselves to place him upon the throne.

The consequences involved in such an engagement cannot but strike you forcibly and a general view of our situation in relation to the reigning bashaw and our unfortunate country men in Tripoli, will be sufficient to mark its expediency. I shall consider it my duty, as it certainly is my inclination, to afford you every aid compatible with the authority vested in me, and commensurate with the means that have been placed at my disposal; and you may rely on the most active and vigorous support from the squadron, as soon as the season and our arrangements will permit us to appear in force before the enemy's walls; but I wish you to understand that no guarantee or engagement to the exiled prince, whose cause, I must repeat we are only favoring, as an instrument to our advantage, and not as an end in itself, must be held to stand in the way of our acquiescence to any honorable and advantageous terms of accommodation which the reigning bashaw may be induced to propose. These terms being once offered and accepted by the representative of government appointed to treat of peace, our support to the ex bashaw must necessarily cease. You will not, however, conceive, sir, that these considerations, important and necessary as they are, ought to induce us at once to abandon the benefits which the measures you have adopted seem to promise; I conceive a perseverance in them by no means incompatible with a total freedom from any trammels with respect to a definitive object, which freedom I deem it all-important to preserve, especially when I view the peculiar situation in which capt. Bainbridge and his fellow-sufferers, may be placed by this co-operation. If by your energy and exertions, added to the supplies, now sent forward, you succeed in getting possession of Derne and Bengaze, we may calculate that having received this impulse from our strength, the ex-bashaw will himself possess sufficient energy, courage and talent, and if accounts are correct, sufficient interest among the people to move on with firm steps, and conduct his friends and followers to the gates of Tripoli, but should he be found deficient in these essential qualities, or that it appears we have been deceived in regard to the disposition of the inhabitants, he must be held as an unfit subject for further support or co-operation."

WORM DESROYING LOZENGES,

Which have within four years paſt cured upwards of one hundred and twenty thouſand perſons of both ſexes, of every age, and in every ſituation, of various dangerous complaints ariſing from worms, and from obſtructions or foulneſs in the ſtomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever of ſimilar title, ſo commonly complained of as operating with violence, on the contrary, a particular excellence of this remedy is its being ſuited to every age and conſtitution; … contai… is nothing but what is perfectly innocent, and is … ſold… min… its operation that it cannot injure the moſt delicate pregnant lady, or the tendereſt infant of a week old ſhould no worms exiſt in the body, but will, without pain or griping, cleanſe the ſtomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offenſive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal diſorders. They are particularly efficacious in carrying off all groſs humors and corruptions; feveriſh and billious complaints, and the ſafeſt and mildeſt purgative that can be uſed on the occaſion.

Deſcription of Worms, and the ſymptoms by which they are known.

Worms which infeſt the human body, are chiefly of four kinds, viz. the Teres or large round worm, the Aſcaidres, or ſmall maw worm, the Cucurbitina, or ſhort, flat, white worm, and laſtly, the Tænia or tape worm, ſo called from its reſemblance to tape; this is often many yards long, and is full of joints—It is moſt hurtful, and moſt difficult to cure.

Among the ſymptoms attending worms, are diſagreeable breath, eſpecially in the morning—Bad and corrupted gums—Itching in the noſe and about the ſeat—Convulſions and epileptic fits, and ſometimes privation of ſpeech—Starting and grinding of the teeth in ſleep—Irregular appetite, ſometimes loathing food, and ſometimes voracious—Purging, with ſlimy and fœtid ſtools—Voting—Large and hard belly—Pains and ſickneſs at ſtomach—Pains in the head and thighs, with lowneſs …its—Slow fever, with ſmall and irregular pulſe—A …ugh—Exceſſive thirſt—Sometimes pale and unheal… …ntenance, and ſometimes the face bloated and

CASES OF CURES—
By Hamilton's
WORM DESTROYING LOZENGES,
(Selected from thouſands) the authenticity of which any perſon may aſcertain either by letter or perſonal application.

TAPE WORM.

Mr. SAMUEL FULLER, Inn keeper, on the Harford road, ten miles from Baltimore, began about twenty months ago to be grievouſly afflicted with a tape worm, which increaſed faſt in ſize and ſtrength, ſo as to excite the moſt horrid ſenſations by his writhing motions and intolerable pains, reſembling the gnawing and tearing of his bowels, which deprived him of his neceſſary ſleep, and cauſed ſuch dreadful apprehenſions as cannot be conceived but by one in a ſimilar ſituation—his appetite waſted rapidly, and with that his ſtrength, ſo that he was unable to attend to any buſineſs—when he heard of ſome excellent cures performed by Hamilton's worm lozenges, he took a large doſe, which brought away about FOUR YARDS of the worm (now in the poſſeſſion of Lee, & co.) but a renewal of his pains ſoon convinced him that this monſtrous reptile had recovered its firſt vigor—Application was made to Lee & Co. for more of their medicine, with their advice, from which reſulted the total expulſion of his formidable enemy, in ſeveral pieces, which he ſuppoſed to be SIX or EIGHT YARDS more. A few months have ſince elapſed, and Mr. Fuller is now in perfect health. The above facts are well known to a numerous circle of his neighbors, and himſelf will gratify any who may wiſh to make further inquiries on the ſubject. Although Hamilton's worm lozenges produce ſuch powerful effects, when neceſſary, yet they are perfectly innocent and mild in their operation on the human body, even taken in large doſes, as Mr. Fuller will teſtify—their particular mildneſs is abundantly evident in innumerable cures of infants.

Communicated by Dr. John Spangler, York town, Pennſylvania.

Letter from the reverend Mr. JOHN MOLTHER miniſter of the Moravian church in York-town.

York, January 4th, 1802.

DEAR SIR,

Dr. Hamilton's lozenges have been recommended to me as a very adequate means for the cure of children afflicted with worms, I procured a box for the uſe of my family, to try whether by means of this medicine I might be enabled to gain a point, which, to accompliſh, different other means had proved abortive. My eldeſt boy had a very fickly appearance, was very reſtleſs at night, grew leaner from time to time; in ſhort, he ſeemed to be in a precarious ſtate of health, which would yield to none of the medicines adminiſtered, until I gave him two doſes of lozenges, agreeably to the directions, which carried off a ſubſtance to all appearance a mere mucus but upon cloſe inſpection quite repeled with very ſmall living animals. Not one of that ſort of worms which uſually afflict children came from him. Since that period he grew remarkably better in health, and though lean, has got a freſh and lively complexion. Upon different occaſions I have uſed this medicine as a purging ſubſtitute, and found it to anſwer exceedingly well, without bringing on belly ache, or any other diſagreeable ſenſations, ſo often occaſioned by purging medicines. Upon the which I judge this medicine to be, beſides its main object, one of the moſt ſalutary means for reſtoring loſt appetite, and promoting a proper ſtate of digeſtion, by carrying off that billious ſubſtance, which engenders ſo much indiſpoſition both among children and adults.

I am, Sir, your moſt obedient ſervant,

JOHN MOLTHER.
